GENERAL JUBILEE!

Ratification of the Union of the Old and New School Presbyterians.

$5,000,000 to be Raised as a Thank-offering for Church Purposes.

CONGRATULATORY ADDRESSES.

Adjournment Sine Die.

Yesterday was concluded in our city one of the most important ecclesiastical councils ever held in this country. The proceedings, from the commencement to the close, were orderly, harmonious and dignified, reflecting the largest measure of credit to the delegates and the great body of Christians they represented. We beneath subjoin the report of the concluding exercises:

OLD SCHOOL ASSEMBLY.

The closing exercises of the Old School Assembly were commenced at the First Church at a quarter past nine yesterday morning the Church being filled to overflowing, with those who had assembled, as members and spectatoss to participate.

DEVOTIONAL EXERCISES.

The moderator opened the proceedings with a fervent prayer.

On motion of Rev. Dr. Hall, the devotional exercises were limited to fifteen minutes.

The singing of a Hymn was followed by prayer by the Rev. Mr. Grier.

The Congregation again joined in singing the 375th Hymn, after which Rev. Mr. McCook led in prayer, which closed the devotional exercises.

Dr. Hall, from the Committee on arrangements reported that Elder Belknap had been appointed to assist at the Communion service.

On motion of the same gentleman, Rev. Dr. Rodgers, O. S., and Rev. Dr. Stearns, N. S., were appointed to officiate as Moderators on the Communion occasion.

The minutes were read and after some slight changes approved.

The Committee of Three from the New School Assembly, was announced, consisting of Rev. Drs. Humphreys, of Philadelphia, Aiken, of Cleveland, and Elder Foote.

RECEPTION OF THE COMMITTEE.

Dr. Aiken upon taking the platform said: "Mr. Moderator, I am one of a Committee of Three appointed by the New School Assembly to wait upon this branch and report the action of the Assembly in reference to the vote for union, and as I take for granted your branch is now ready to receive our report, I will call on my colleague, Dr. Humphreys, to read the report given him as official by our Stated Clerk."

Dr. Humphrey then read the report, showing the vote of the Presbyteries of the New School branch published heretofore.

The reading of the paper was followed with applause.

Moderator Jacobus responded in a feeling manner to the report and greeting of the Committee, saying that the hearts of the brethren had been made glad by the great unanimity which had culminated in the great reunion, and from which so much was to be expected in the future.

The Doctor closed his remarks with a fervent appeal for the blessings of Heaven upon the reunited church

The paper was handed to the Clerk and the Committee then retired.

DECLARATION OF UNION.

Elder Henry Day, as Secretary of the Reunion Committee, begged leave to present the last resolution to be passed upon by the Assembly. He then read the following paper:

This Assembly having received and examined the statement of the vote of the several Presbyteries on the basis of reunion of the two bodies, now claiming the name and the rights of the Presbyterian Church of the United States of America, in the words following, viz:

"The union shall be effected on the doctrine and ecclesiastical basis of our common system. The Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments shall be acknowledged as being the inspired word of God, and the only infallible guide of faith and practice. The confession of faith shall continue to be received and adopted as containing the doctrines taught in the Holy Scriptures, and the government and the doctrine of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, and whereas in them is contained the rules of our polity."

It is hereby declared that said basis has been approved by more than two-thirds of the Presbyteries of this branch of the Church, and whereas the other branch, in the First Church, has reported that this basis has been approved by more than two-thirds of the Presbyteries connected with that branch of the Church. Therefore we do now solemnly declare that said Basis of Reunion is of binding force.

The paper was adopted unanimously by a rising vote, and amidst great applause.

Rev. Dr. Rodgers then obtained the floor, and moved that the Moderator declare this General Assembly to be dissolved, and direct that another General Assembly, chosen in the same manner, shall meet in the Third Presbyterian Church in Philadelphia, on the 17th of May, 1870.

The motion was unanimously carried, and the Moderator, in accordance therewith, made the announcement, dissolving the Assembly, and calling for another one as stated.

THE LAST OF THE "OLD SCHOOL."

An impressive and feeling prayer, by the Moderator, applicable to the occasion, was then made, after which the audience was dismissed with the benediction. The General Assembly of the Old School Presbyterian Church was thus dissolved forever.

THE NEW SCHOOL ASSEMBLY.

The Assembly convened at nine o'clock Friday morning, and was opened with prayer by the Moderator.

Drs. Gray and Musgrave, from the Old School Assembly were introduced, and read a certified copy of the result of the vote of the Presbyteries on the Basis of Union, as reported to that body, and the official action taken.

The Moderator, in response, said the result was received with the most profound pleasure, and he requested the Commissioners to inform their body that this Assembly was in full accord with them.

The Moderator then announced the following Committees, as suggested by the Joint Committee on Reunion. Similar committees were appointed in the Old School Assembly.

Committee on Reconstruction of Synods and Presbyteries and Change of Constitution—Revs. Drs. Fisher, Patterson and Hatfield, and Elders Wing and Suttle.

Committee on Church Works and Progress—Hon. Wm. E. Dodge, Hon. Wm. Strong, and Revs. Drs. Stearns, Goodrich and Hawley.

Committee on Home Missions—Drs. Adams and Kendal, Mitchell, H. W. Williams, L L. D., and Mr. Farrand.

Committee on Church Erection—Revs. Geo. W. Lane, Ellingwood and Taylor, and O. H. Lee and Samuel T. Bodine.

Foreign Missions—Dr. Nelson, Dr. Booth, Rev. F. A. Noble, and Elders Allison and Scarritt.

Education—Drs. James P. Wilson, John G. Atterbury, E. D. Morris and elders A. W. Walldon and T. P. Hardy.

On Publication—Drs. Humphrey, J. G. Butler, Dr. Dallis and elders Brown and Knight.

On Freedmen—Drs. Hopkins Hatfield, H. Johnson, and elders Wm. Thaw and J. W. Edwards.

The Moderator then called the Assembly to order, and requested every person in the house to be seated.

THE UNION FORMALLY DECLARED.

Dr. Adams ascended the platform, and offered, a paper declaring the basis of reunion as of binding force. The document was similar to that adopted in the Old School Assembly.

After being read it was adopted by a rising vote, unanimously.

SCHOOL DISMISSED.

Dr. Adams moved that the Assembly be dissolved. The motion was unanimously adopted.

The Moderator then formally dissolved the Assembly, in the manner prescribed by the Book, and directed that another Assembly, chosen in a manner similar to this one, meet in Phildelphia in May, 1870.

The Moderator then offered prayer, and the Assembly was dismissed with the benediction.

THE JUBILEE.

IMPOSING PROCESSION.

Who has not felt the blood course his veins with fresh found activity and strength and vigor, as the proud military regiment with banners flying and music sounding marched with measured tread through the avenue lined with admiring people? Who has not felt new patriotism, loyalty and valor crowd about his heart on such an occasion, whether it happened in time of peace or war? There was a spectacle afforded our good people yesterday which carried more moral weight, effect and true glory to the hearts of the onlookers than could have been afforded by ten times ten military regiments passing in review. It was an array of Peace, marshaled under ministers of God and the banner of Heaven, and going forth to perform a work ordered by a wise Providence to be consummated by their hands,—a mission, the fulfillment of which marks an era in the history of Christianity and promises to strengthen religion everywhere and sustain the customs and practices established by Christ and His Apostles, and faithfully handed down from generations to generations as things sacred in themselves and fraught with man's welfare on earth and his happiness in eternity. As this important and imposing body quietly and unostentatiously moved through our streets there were none who looked idly on, but all felt deeply impressed with the solemnity of the occasion and the grandeur of the deed of reunion among so numerous a branch of the Christian family about to be ratified.

The procession numbered about seven hundred gentlemen, and, without wishing to step aside to compliment or flatter those in the ranks, we must record what was the universal remark, that a finer or more dignified body of citizens was never observed together in this city. The pavements of Fifth avenue, Wood street and Sixth avenue were crowded with spectators, and, at some places, it was with difficulty that the police pioneered a way through the assembled populace to enable the procession to move.

AT THE CHURCH.

At the magnificent Third Church building, on Sixth avenue, there had assembled, long before 10 o'clock, several thousand men and women, who early took their places in order to seize the first opportunities afforded for entrance to the church. A strong detachment of police guarded the entrances and maintained excellent order. The church was kept clear of occupants until the procession of ministers and elders arrived, when the main doorways were thrown open, and two by two the authorized representatives of the now unknown, save to history, Old and New School Presbyterians, filed in and took their places. The Committee on Reunion were allotted seats on the platform, and the Commissioners were assigned places in the central platform of the auditorium. As the procession entered, the great organ of the church pealed forth its harmonious greeting, and the choir, especially strengthened for the occasion, sang in gladdening strains the jubilee hymn:

"Blow ye the trumpet blow!
The gladly solemn sound;
Let all the nations know
To earth's remotest bound,
The year of Jubilee is come,
Return ye ransomed sinners home," etc.

The Moderators, Revs. Drs. Fowler and M. W. Jacobus, occupied seats together in the central part of the platform and alternately presided over the jubilant body. Around them were clustered a solid mass of Commissioners, and others who had cheek enough to push their way into such good quarters. After the rear of the procession had arrived at the church and all the representatives had been seated, the restrictions against the entrance of the people were withdrawn, and a solid and indiscriminate mass of humanity, closely hugging and squeezing each other to the utter ruin of crinoline and good clothes, forced their way into the Church and circulated to the best possible advantage. Three minutes after the general public where admitted every inch of available space was taken, and fully three thousand souls were packed in the Church in such close proximity to each other as to prove uncomfortable, so much so that in one instance a lady fainted and had to be carried out over the shoulders of the people blocking up the aisle. The rushing of so many people into the Church at one time created great confusion and the noise consequent thereto vied with Niagaras roaring and surging. At a few minutes before eleven o'clock the Moderator, or rather presiding officer, brought down his gavel and order was established. The entire audience then joined in singing the Coronation hymn

All hail the power of Jesus' name;
Let angels prostrate fall;
Bring forth the royal diadem,
And crown him Lord of all.

The venerable Rev. Dr. Elliot at this juncture took a place on the platform, and his hoary white head called forth such a burst of rapturous applause from the audience as must have made the old and beloved pastor happy to an extreme.

OPENING PRAYER.

Rev. C. C. Beatty, D. D. L. L. D., made the opening prayer, fervently addressing the "Throne of Grace" and inviting the blessings of God on the union effected and being ratified. Dr. Beatty was Chairman of the original Committee appointed at St. Louis on the Union. He thanked God that the two Churches had been brought together after a long separation, and that he had been permitted to be present to rejoice in the union and the existence of the now one Church. He thanked God that the Holy Spirit had been poured out in all the Churches. He eloquently invoked benediction on all members of the Church, high and low, rich and poor, young and old. He begged that a healthy influence might be exerted and great advantages flow from the newly consecrated union. He prayed that the spirit of charity and forbearance might be exercised towards one another, and that the whole Church may be united to God. He finally invoked Grace, Mercy and Peace on all Churches embraced in the union.

TIDINGS OF GOOD CHEER.

Dr. Fowler reported the following resolution from Mr. Plumley, of New Jersey:

Resolved, That a telegram be sent to British Churches, in care of Rev. Robt. Buchanan, D. D., Glasgow, Scotland, that the United States Old and New School Presbyteries had formed a union, and were now united in one body.

The resolution was unanimously adopted, and Messrs. Geo. H. Stuart, Jno. Hall, D. D., and Hon. W. E. Dodge were appointed a committee to attend to the transmission of the good tidings to brethren across the ocean.

Dr. Jacobus gave out hymn, "Blessed are the sons of peace," &c., which was sung with very decided effect, the entire assemblage joining in its rendition.

Rev. Dr. Fowler was called upon for a congratulatory address, and promptly responded, reading as his text from the Holy Scriptures as follows:

"Behold how good and how pleasant a thing it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!"

It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down the beard, even Aaron's beard, that went down to the skirts of his garments.

As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that decended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the Lord commanded the blessing, even life forevermore.

Neither pray I for these alone, but for them also which shall believe on me through their word; that they all may be one, as thou Father art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou has sent me.

And the glory which thou gavest me I have given them; that they may be one, even as we are one; I in them, and thou in me that they way be made perfect in one; and that the world may know that thou hast sent me and hast loved them as thou hast loved me.

Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, saith your God.

Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem, and cry unto her that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned; for she hath received of the Lord's hand double for all her sins.

The voice of him that crieth in the wilderness. Prepare ye the way of the Lord, make straight in the desert a highway for our God. Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low, and the crooked shall be made straight, and the rough places plain; and the glory of the Lord shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of the Lord hath spoken it.

The voice said, cry. And he said what shall I cry? All flesh is grass and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field; the grass withereth, the flower fadeth; because the spirit of the Lord bloweth upon it; surely the people is grass. The grass withereth, the flower fadeth, but the word of our God shall stand forever.

Oh Zion, that bringest good tidings, get thee up into the high mountains. O Jerusalem that bringest good tidings, lift up thy voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say unto the cities of Judah, Behold, your God.

Behold, the Lord God will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him; behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him. He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arm and carry them in his bosom, and shall gently lead those that are with young.

THE OPENING ADDRESS.

Dr. Fowler then said they all might well feel dumb in the presence of the overpowering occasion, and it was through no choice of his own that he broke the silence. He would have much preferred to remain silent to wonder, and admire, and marvel, at the great work which had been done. History had no parallel for it in all the past. There had been instances of churches dividing, but never had such a grand reunion been accomplished. It was easy to divide, but hard to reunite. The rock might be splintered but the fragments could not be so easily solidified again. The Church might be divided, but the work of binding it again together was hard, and almost impossible. Here and there were instances of reunion, but they were few, and none could compare to the glorious one, the accomplishment of which they were witnesses. Here were thousands of ministers, thousands of churches and hundreds of thousands of christians, uniting together in what will be an indissoluble union. [Applause.] And they came together with what wonderful unanimity. The votes of the Presbyteries, the voice of the people, the actions of the churches had all united almost unanimously in bringing about the desired consummation. Such an instance had not been recorded in all the reunions of the past centuries. It was quickly accomplished, so quickly that not one of all who had the rare privilege of participating, would ever have dreamed of such a rapidity. Ten years ago, none thought of it or spoke of it, and even a few years ago, when the matter began to assume the first shape, none of those having it in charge ever expected to enjoy the blissful vision themselves, but fondly hoped that possibly their children might see the end. And yet to-day they were witnesses of an event which in sublimity and grandeur passed their wildest imaginings. They saw a union consummated of two bodies, not because of any exigency of the occasion; not because tottering to a fall the two organizations were compelled to grasp each other that they might save themselves. Never were they in a more prosperous condition. Never did they stand higher in wealth, numerical strength or in prosperity in all things. Not that they might in the larger number, to do do the work assigned, be given over to slothfulness or puffed up with exaltation. In view of these facts, the only answer to the question, how has this been brought about was in ascribing all the glory and success and result to grace and wisdom from God. The Lord had truly wrought great work. In this view, then, it became a matter of serious responsibility with them, how they should carry on this work commensurate with the great additional power and advantages which had been given them by the reunion.

The speaker developed this point at some length, and said that praise to God for this signal manifestation of his favor could only be given in pushing energetically forward His work with all the additional powers thus conferred upon them. The church must hereafter be more aggressive. Effort, progress, was in the mind of God in thus uniting them, and it should be their grand aim to live up to the standard placed before them. He read a letter from a missionary in India, contributing a thank offering of one hundred dollars in gold, as a slight contribution to five millions dollars, which it was proposed to raise as a memorial of the grand consummation.

HEARTS AND HANDS.

In conclusion, Dr. Fowler spoke of having intended to be brief, and then turning to Dr. Jacobus reached out his hand and said, "and now Brother Moderator, before taking my seat, may we not, as representatives of the churches thus so happily united, seal that union by a symbol of the fraternal Christian compact entered into this morning."

Dr. Jacobus promptly responded to the request, and both Moderators stood up before the audience hand in hand. The audience gave way to an uncontrollable burst of enthusiasm, and deafening manifestations of applause made the church tremble to its foundation for fully five minutes. The hand-clasping was made almost universal, and a tableau at once beautiful and historical was presented. The union of hearts and of hands was fully accomplished! Happily a rich, full voice terminated the scene by starting up the Doxology, which was sung with marked effect. Considerable time elapsed after the singing ceased before the audience had recovered from their exciting enthusiasm.

CELEBRATING THE NUPTIALS.

Rev. Dr. Jacobus was the next speaker. He said that we were celebrating the nuptials—the Lord Jesus Christ, the Great Apostle and High Priest, officiates. He would now proclaim that "these Churches have been united, and if any one has any good and sufficient reason to offer why these Churches should not be united let them state them, or hereafter forever hold their peace."

Then turning to Dr. Elliott, he said: "Our venerable father, you were present in Philadelphia when these bodies separated. Do you know any reason why they should not be reunited?"

Dr. Elliott, (rising), said, "I do not sir."

Mr. George H. Stuart responded, "What God has joined together let no man put asunder." Fervent amens were heard from all parts of the house.

Dr. Jacobus then made a few eloquent remarks. He referred briefly to the vote taken among the Old School Presbyterians, and spoke tenderly of those who, using their right of opinion, had voted against the union. He felt sure, however, that they would become strong and earnest members of the United Church. He illustrated, most beautifully, the union of the two bodies by using the Allegheny and Monongahela rivers, which form the Ohio as a simile, and expressed the fervent hope that the future of the United Church would be such as is typified by the Ohio. Upon the conclusion of Dr. Jacobus' remarks the congregation joined in singing the hymn commencing

"Blest be the tie that binds."

FINAL REPORT.

Rev. Dr. Musgrave, Rev. Dr. Adams and Rev. Dr. Fisher each made eloquent and felicitous congratulatory addresses, which were listened to with great attention. The last named gentlemen presented a document which he had been instructed to prepare by the Joint Committee on Union, which contained the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

Resolved, By the ministers, elders and members of the church here assembled, as in the presence and behalf of the entire body of disciples connected with us in this land, and those beloved missionaries in foreign shores, now meditating our action with tender and prayerful interest, that it is incumbent on the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America, one in organization, one in faith, one in effort, to make a special offering to the treasury of our Lord of five millions of dollars, and we pledge ourselves first of all to seek, in our daily petitions, the blessing of God to make this resolution effectual; and second, that we will, with untiring perseverance and personal effort, endeavor to animate the whole church with the like purpose, and to secure the accomplishment of the great work, before the third Thursday of May, 1871.

Resolved, That this preamble and resolution be signed by the Moderators and Clerks of the Assemblies of 1869, by the members of the late Joint Committee on Union, (and all the members of the two Assemblies) printed by the Stated Clerks and sent to every pastor of our church.

OTHER ADDRESSES.

After an earnest appeal to the Throne of Grace by Rev. Dr. Hatfield, Rev. Dr. John Hall was next introduced and made a strong address. After singing the psalm commencing "Oh, thou, my soul, bless the Lord." Judge Strong, of Philadelphia, Senator Drake, of Missouri, Hon. Henry Day and Hon. W. E. Dodge, of New York, addressed the audience.

The President announced that he had received a cheque for $1,000 from Rev. Dr. Beatty, as a thanks-offering to the proposed fund of five millions. The announcement was also made that a missionary had forwarded to the same fund one hundred dollars in gold. These figures in cash were received with much applause. The Hon. W. E. Dodge, of New York, was designated as temporary treasurer, to whom subscriptions can be forwarded.

George H. Stuart, Esq., of Philadelphia, was loudly called upon by the audience, and he made a brief congratulatory address. He expressed the hope that the day is not far distant when the united body shall embrace within its fold every branch of the Presbyterian faith in these United States.

The closing prayer was then offered in an impressive and feeling manner by Robert Carter, Esq., at the conclusion of which Rev. Dr. Jacobus pronounced the benediction, and the audience was dismissed. And thus ends the reunion of the Presbyterian Old and New Schools after a separation of three decades of years.

THE LAST MEETING.

Last evening, the concluding Union Prayer meeting, participated in by members of the Presbyterian Assemblies—that were—was held in the Third Presbyterian church, and was attended by all the people enabled to obtain a seat or standing room in the auditorium. The meeting was held in behalf of the cause of Foreign Missions. The exercises consisted of several spirited and interesting addresses, interspersed with fervent devotional exercises, which continued until about half-past nine o'clock, when the audience was dismissed.

GREAT BRITAIN.

LONDON November 12.—The obsequies of the late George Peabody took place this afternoon. The funeral procession formed at the mansion of De Curtis Lampson, in Eaton Square, the residence of the deceased. It consisted of the hearse and five mourning coaches. Among the mourners were Gen. C. Grey, Her Majesty's Private Secretary, representing the Queen; Mr. Motley, Minister of the United States; Benjamin Miran, Secretary of the American legation; Freeman H. Morse, Consul at London; Russel Sturges and J. S. Nurgan, Esq. Following the procession were the carriages of the Queen, Prince of Wales, Mr. Curtis Lampson, Lord Mayor and Aldermen of London, High Sheriffs of London, and of Coults and of Middlesex and Surrey; Duchesse of Somerset; Marquis of Townshend; Lady Franklin; Miss Burdett Coutts, and many others. The funeral cortege passed slowly through the streets, which were lined with silent crowds of spectators, to Westminster Abbey. The venerable structure was completely filled with people who had been admitted by tickets and were all dressed in mourning. The choir was hung with black, and the sombre aspect of the interior was only relieved by the richly decorated robes of the Lord Mayor and sheriffs, standing near the sacrarium. As the body was brought in, there were present Mr. Gladstone, Lord Clarendon, the Dean of St. Pauls, the Rev. Thomas Binney, a dissenting minister, Dr. George Edward Day, and Mr. John Bright. A flood of sunshine poured through the windows of the choir at the moment the procession entered the building. The coffin, which was placed on a bier at the end of the choir, was plain and unornamented, and covered with black cloth. On the lid was a brass plate with an inscription, giving simply the name of the deceased, and place, and date of his birth and death. The lesson was read by the Arch Deacon of Westminster. As soon as the ceremony within the church was over the procession formed again, and advanced to a spot near the western entrance, where a grave had been prepared and an excavation two or three feet deep had been made, the sides of which grave were lined with black drapery. Here the body was deposited, and will remain until it is transported to America. Lord John Thynne read the remainder of the burial service. At the head of the grave, on the right, stood the mourners, including the American Minister, and on the left were General Grey, Mr. Gladstone, Lord Clarendon, the Lord Mayor, the High Sheriffs and Clergy of Westminster and St. Paul.

The solemnity of the occasion was profoundly felt by the vast assembly. Men present shed tears during the choral service which included the singing of an anthem. His body is buried in peace, but his name liveth evermore. After the coffin had been lowered into the grave, a floral cross was placed upon it. This act was witnessed in profound silence, and served to increase the emotion which pervaded the congregation. The people then passed around the coffin and took a last look at the features of the deceased. The Bishop of London will preach the funeral sermon on Sunday.

DUBLIN, November 12—The Irish Times asserts that it has proof that Kelley, the Fenian leader, who was rescued at Manchester, was the man who died recently at a hospital in this city, under the name of Marden, and whose identity was doubtful.

FRANCE.

PARIS, Nov. 12.—Ledru Rollin refuses to return to Paris, though he has withdrawn from the canvass for the Corps Legislatif.

A deputation of electors has just returned from London with the acceptance by Louis Blanc of the nomination to the Corps Legislatif from Paris, in place of Ledru Rollin. The latter, however, insists on maintaining his candidature, and publishes an address, which is ridiculed by all the Paris journals.

Menseigneur Dapanloup, Bishop of Orleans: has issued a pastoral letter expressing his approval of the procedings of the Fulda Conference, but declaring in advance that he will abide by the decisions of the Ecumenical Council, whatever they may be.

It is reported that the Pastoral of the Archbishop of Paris, issued November 7th, opposing the adoption of the dogma of Papal infallibility, without discussion, was inspired by the Emperor.

EGYPT.

LONDON, November 12—Advices from Alexandria state that the great bed of rock in the Suez Canal at Ismalia, ninety-six miles south of Port Said, which has hitherto been a hinderance to dredging, will be at once blasted out. This rock is eighty feet thick.

CHICAGO.

Contempt of Court—Miss Bateman Seeks Her Rights—Colored Man Appointed Notary Public—Railroad Accident—Anticipated Strike Among the Tailors, &c., &c.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

CHICAGO, November 12.—In the case of the United States, ex relation, Henry Army vs. the Mayor and Aldermen of the city of Galena, which was a proceeding by mandamus instituted against the Common Council of the City of Galena, to compel them to levy a tax to pay certain bonds held by the relator, a writ of attachment was issued out of the Circuit Court of the United States for the Northern District of Illinois, and the Mayor and Aldermen brought to this city this morning in charge of the United States Marshall to answer for contempt of Court, in their refusal and failure to levy the tax and pay the creditors of the city, as heretofore ordered by the Court. The Court not being ready to hear their answer, they were released upon their own recognizance to appear from day to day until the cases are settled.

A bill was filed yesterday in the United States Court, by counsel on behalf of Miss Kate Bateman, to enjoin Frank E. Aiken, proprietor of Aiken's Museum, from producing her play of "Mary Warner," and for damages for its representation during the past week. This morning Judge Drummond granted an injunction, which was issued. It is said that Miss Bateman will prosecute for full damages from Aiken.

Governor Palmer has appointed John Jones, of this city, a well known and wealthy colored man, Notary Public. This is the first time political rights of negroes has been recognized in this State.

H. Kensington, an old citizen of Fairbury, Ill., is reported as having failed. Liabilities over one hundred thousand dollars. It is thought he will be able to settle at seventy-five cents on the dollar.

Another strike is anticipated among the journeymen tailors of this city. It was thought the difficulties between the bosses and journeymen was caused two weeks ago, but a new misunderstanding has arisen as to the meaning of the term "plain coats." The journeymen assembled at their room this morning and sent a committee to the bosses. The committee in the afternoon returned, and presented the reply of the bosses. It says they looked upon the action of some members of the Union respecting the revised bill of October 29th as being in bad faith. The committee say they will adhere to the bill as revised and approved, excepting that they are willing to allow for extras taken from morning or walking coats, walking jackets or sacks, and on all broadcloth coats. The Committee conclude by advising those members who are disaffected with the action of the union to form an association such as the master tailors can recognize. The journeymen received the answer unfavorably, and motions were made to strike at four o'clock. The union had not yet determined upon their action.

At a point near Guthrie, Iowa, on the night of the 10th, a construction train on the Rock Island and Pacific Railroad ran into a hand car and threw the train off the track. One person was instantly killed and twenty wounded, one of whom has since died.

Sent to the Insane Asylum—Rumor Contradicted—Peabody Funeral.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

BOSTON, November 12.—A gentleman of this city who lately left a respectable business and good prospects to engage in the gold speculation, has been sent to the insane asylum.

The rumors current at a distance of a financial panic in Boston are without foundation. The Hartford and Erie Railroad stock, which fell yesterday from 17 to 10, partially rallied to-day, closing at 12¾. Other stocks are quiet, and the money market is unchanged.

The funeral of George Peabody was observed to-day by the tolling of the city bells and a display of flags at half mast.

Samana Bay—Attorney General Hoar and the Supreme Bench—The Gigantic Custom House Frauds—New Winter Time Table—The new Assistant Treasurer—Demand Refused and a Strike to Follow—Breakeman Reinstated—Struggle for a Reward—Inquest on the Chimney-Corner Children.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

NEW YORK, November 12.—The United States steamer Albany sailed for St. Domingo on Wednesday afternoon. She carries three Commissioners, who go to take formal possession of Samana Bay as an American station. The Albany was loaded with heavy ordnance for ocast fortifications, and will take nearly a regiment of Infantry and a company of Artillery at Dry Tortugas and Corona.

It is stated that Attorney General Hoar is about to accept a seat on the Supreme Court bench.

The entire Custom House frauds are estimated at $800,000. They were committed during 1866-7-8. The principal offender has not yet been arrested, and his name is withheld. It appears that a few weeks ago Wm. J. Korn and Wm. H. Whimstead were arrested on a charge of being engaged in the frauds. Korn made a statement implicating Blatchford, Romaine, Mulligan and three brothers named Caldwell. The District Attorney demanded documentary evidence against the men from the Treasury Department, and on Tuesday the papers were brought. The guilt of Blatchford depends upon the genuineness of his initials upon drawback claims. The examination of Mulligan was adjourned till to-morrow, owing to the absence of District Attorney Pierrepont.

The new Assistant Treasurer, Fulger, is busy to-day arranging his securities. He enters upon his duties probably on Monday.

It is reported that the Erie officials have reinstated the old brakemen, and discharged the new, at the same time acceding to their demands.

One of the largest clothing houses in the city has peremptorily refused compliance with the regulations of the Clothing Cutters' Union, to pay all cutters $24 per week. The result will probably be a strike. The number of cutters in the city is about one thousand, of whom about eight hundred are society men.

A man, supposed to be Luke Egan, principal in the burglary at Mayfield, Chantanqua county, committed some time ago, was trapped in a saloon last night, and arrested after a violent conflict. He denied the impeachment, saying his name was John Crawford in which he was confirmed by several detectives, but there was such a struggle for the reward offered for the capture of the burglar that he was hastily sent off to Mayfield.

An inquest was commenced to-day on the remains of the three infants found in a chimney in house No. 128 East Twenty-eighth street, at present unoccupied.

SAN FRANCISCO.

Vessels Foundered—Death of Mr. Pritchelle, Late United States Consul at Fejee Islands.

(By Telegraph to the Pittsburgh Gazette.)

SAN FRANCISCO, November 12—Advices from the Pacific Coast announce the foundering of the English brig Rona, Capt. U. A. Hays, from Huaherne, Society Islands, March 23d, for San Francisco with an assorted cargo. Soon after sailing she sprung a leak and was abandoned May 2d, off Pecipins Island, which the Captain and crew reached in safety.

Another vessel, the Aoma, owned by Capt. Hayes, sailed from Huaherne about the same time with the Rona, on a trading expedition, and was wrecked off Humphrey Island, April 5th.

Mr. Pritchelle, late United States Consul at Fejee Island, a passenger on board the Rona, died from congestion of the brain, April 12th. His baggage and effects went down in the Rona.

AT Eaton Rapids, Michigan, recently, a druggist's clerk was awakened in the night by three men who wanted whisky. It was refused them, the clerk stating that liquor was only sold for medicinal purposes. Insisting upon their demand, they were ordered to leave, when one of them seized a chair and aimed a blow at the clerk, but was himself "floored." The other two then seized the clerk, before and behind, but while thus "pinned" he managed to administer to the man in his front a vigorous kick, which sent him sprawling and caused copious hemorrhage, whereupon the man in the rear fled, dismayed at this "laying out" of his companions. He soon returned, however, with "assistance," and found the clerk endeavoring to restore the kicked man to consciousness. This was accomplished after some time, and the discomfited trio departed in a carriage, foiled, it was believed, in a design to commit robbery.

THE unveiling of the Vanderbilt statue at New York developed a vast personal dislike to the Commodore. Throughout the city there was a general outburst of feeling against the Railroad King, and the ceremonies were mainly attended by street boys, corner loafers and some third-rate politicians. Even among those it was considered monstrous for a man to spend $800,000 so as to get an immense bronze monument. Numerous questions were asked among the crowd why the Commodore did not build, with so much money, lodging-houses for workingmen?

THE decision of the Senate of the United States in the case of Mr. Trumbull, of Illinois—who was alleged to be disqualified when chosen to that body, because at the time of his election he was a State judge—that a State can neither add to nor diminish the qualifications required by the Constitution of the United States, is held by the lawyers as conclusive in favor of the new Senator from Tennessee, Mr. Cooper.

THE Ecumenical Counsel is disturbed beforehand by the claim of Archbishop of Paris that the French concordat will not allow a decision on Papal infallibility without discussion. It has been stated that this decision was to be pushed through with no debate. It is to be seen what effect the protest of so important a functionary will have; and also, whether there are any political ends concealed in the contradictions on this point.

POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT,
WASHINGTON, October 16, 1869.
PROPOSALS FOR MAIL LOCKS.

SEALED PROPOSALS for furnishing Mail Locks and Keys of new kinds, to be substituted for the Locks and Keys now used on the United States mails, will be received at this Department until 9 o'clock A. M., the 3d day of FEBRUARY, 1870. It is desirable to obtain Locks and Keys of a new construction for the exclusive use of the United States mails, and, if practicable, invented expressly for that purpose. As the exposure of a model Lock and Key to public examination would impair, if not destroy, its utility for the mails, the Department prescribes no model for bidders, but relies for its selection on the specimens of mechanical skill and ingenuity which a fair competition among inventors, hereby invited, may develop. It is sufficient to describe the principal requisites of a Mail Lock, as follows: Self-Locking uniformity, security, lightness, strength, durability, novelty of construction and facility of use. Two kinds of Locks and Keys, one of brass and the other of iron, different in exterior form and interior construction or arrangement, are required; and Proposals should specify separately the price of each brass Lock, each Key for the same, each iron Lock and each Key for same. Duplicate samples of each kind of Locks and Keys proposed, are required to be submitted with the Proposals; one of each sample Lock to be riveted up and finished, and another to be open or unriveted, so that its internal structure and arrangement may easily be examined. Every sample should be plainly marked with the bidder's name, and, if the same or any part of it be covered by a patent, the date of such patent and the name of the patentee must be also attached thereto.

The internal plan or arrangement of the Locks offered, and the particular shape of the Key requisite to open them, must not be like any now or heretofore in use.

They must be warranted not to infringe upon or conflict with any patented invention of which the bidder is not the patentee. Preference will be given to a Lock, the Key of which has not been exposed to general observation or been publicly described, disclosed or suggested.

A decision on the various specimens and Proposals will be made on or before the 3d day of MARCH, 1870; and unless the Postmaster General shall deem it to be for the interests of the Department to reject all the Proposals and specimens submitted under this advertisement, (a right hereby expressly reserved to him,) contracts will be entered into as soon thereafter as practicable, with the successful bidder whose Locks shall be adopted, for furnishing similar Locks and Keys for four years, as they may be required and ordered. If mutually agreed to in writing by the contractor and Postmaster General, for the time being, not less than six months before its expiration, the contract may be extended and continued for an additional term of four years. But on and after the expiration of either term of the contract, or on and after its rightful annulment at any time, the Postmaster General shall have the right to contract with or employ any other party to furnish the same, or any other kind of Locks and Keys; and if he shall deem proper to demand and receive from the late or defaulting contractor all finished or unfinished Keys and the internal parts of the Locks contracted for, and all dies, gauges and designs, (which would enable others to make or forge such Locks and Keys) in the possession of such contractor, who, after their surrender to the Department shall be paid for the same, at such price as may be ascertained by fair appraisement.

The contractor must agree and be able to furnish, if required and ordered, 20,000 Brass Locks and 3,000 Brass Keys within three months from the time of entering into contract, and 80,000 Iron Locks and 60,000 Iron Keys within ten months from such time. But the Postmaster General will reserve the right to increase or diminish, as the wants or interests of the service may demand, the quantities of the Locks and Keys above specified, with a proportionate allowance of time to furnish them.

All the Locks furnished by the contractor must be warranted to keep in good working order for two years in the ordinary use of the service, when not subjected to obvious violence; such as become defective within that time to be replaced with perfect Locks without charge. All the Locks furnished under contract are to be, each, distinctly marked "U. S. Mail," in either sunk or raised letters, and all the Keys are to be numbered in the natural order; each Key having its appropriate number distinctly stamped upon one side of the bow and "U. S. Mail" on the opposite side.

The contractor will be required to deliver the Locks at his expense at the Postoffice Department, Washington, D. C., put up on sticks, forming separate bundles of five Locks each, and securely packed in wooden boxes containing not more than two hundred Locks each. The Keys are to be delivered to an agent of the Department duly and specially authorized in each case, to take charge of and convey the same from the contractor's manufactory to the Department, where both Locks and Keys are to be inspected and approved before they shall be paid for.

The contractor will be required to give bond with ample security in the sum of Fifty Thousand Dollars, to be forfeited to the United States as liquidated damages, in case of his failure to faithfully perform the contract, either as to furnishing the supplies ordered within a reasonable time, or as to guarding the manufacture of the Mail Locks and Keys with due privacy, integrity and care.

No proposal will therefore be accepted if not accompanied with a bond of the penal sum of Twenty Thousand Dollars, duly executed by the proposed sureties, (whose responsibility must be certified by a Judge of a Court of Record nearest to their place of residence, attested by the Clerk of such Court under the seal thereof,) and conditioned for their becoming responsible as sureties on the required bond for the fulfillment of the contract, in case such Proposal shall be accepted. The manufacture of Mail Locks and Keys is, of necessity, a highly important and delicate trust, which the Department will confide to no bidder whose Proposals are not also accompanied with testimonials of good character.

In deciding on the Proposals and specimens the Postmaster General may deem it expedient to select the Brass Lock of one bidder and the Iron Lock of another. He, therefore, reserves the right of contracting with different individuals for such different kinds of Locks as he may select.

Proposals should be carefully sealed and addressed to the "Second Assistant Postmaster General," and endorsed on the envelope "Proposals for Mail Locks."
JOHN A. J. CRESSWELL,
Postmaster General.

THE CONSUMMATION

Yesterday our city was the theatre of one of the most important events of modern times—the reunion of two grand divisions of the Presbyterian Church of the United States, which, for almost a third of a century had been disunited, and were known during that period respectively as the Old School and New School. Both in the interim had grown mightily in numbers, power and influence; both were pushing on their respective missions, and planting churches in the West, the South, and in foreign lands, as well as in the older parts of our country; both felt strong in the work they had to do, and not a sign of decrepitude was to be found in either. But as years rolled on good men in both felt more and more drawn together, and that no good reason existed why they should move in separate orbits, or why they should not walk together in unity. They desired to come together again, and it has happened in this case as in all cases, that "where there is a will there is a way." Suffice it to say, that in the preliminary negotiations this attractive power of Christian love overcame all difficulties,—and there were many,—and now these two great organizations are one again, under the name of the Presbyterian Church in the United States of America.

For two days the two Assemblies met in their respective places—the O. S. in the First Church on Wood street, and the N. S. in the Third Church on Sixth avenue, to arrange matters for the final union which had already been decreed by the Presbyteries. In the evenings the members mingled for prayer and social intercourse, but the formal union was fixed for Friday morning (yesterday). Not a dissenting voice, nor an exception, nor a jar, nor a crook was heard from first to last.

At 9 A. M. yesterday the two assemblies met as usual in their respective places. At ten the members of the New School left the Third church in procession, and walked down Sixth avenue into Wood street, and as they arrived the members of the Old School body left their church in the same order, and in the street blended side by side and arm in arm with their brethren from the Third, and thus walked back, via Fifth avenue and Smithfield street, to the Third church, which had been kept clear till the united procession should arrive.

To every mind capable of grasping the scene in all its far reaching influences upon the church and the world, the spectacle was inexpressibly sublime—sublime in its simplicity, grand in the total absence of all pageantry. Those earnest men, with no outward trappings to distinguish them from other men, with hearts filled with joy and high resolve, representations of thousands of churches and hundreds of thousands of Christians, saw eye to eye and flowed together in the sight of our people with all the simplicity and humble bearing that distinguished the great Master of all when he walked amongst men.

It is impossible to do justice to the fervid bursts of eloquence with which these united brethren greeted each other when they got together in the church. Everything was conducted with the most perfect order; and when Dr. FOWLER, Moderator of the New School Assembly, rose and grasped the hand of Dr. JACOBUS, Moderator of the Old School, and while the two men stood there with both hands grasped, and both manifestly under deep emotion, the vast assembly burst into the grand old doxology, "Praise God from whom all blessings flow," it seemed the very acme of the morally sublime.

In another place the reader will find a report of the meeting more in detail, and of the important resolution adopted to crown this auspicious event with a free-will offering of five millions of dollars for sacred uses.

IS FRIDAY AN UNLUCKY DAY?

Few educated people put any faith in that popular superstition which has obtained among the ignorant and unlearned, from time immemorial, that "Friday is an unlucky day." Yet we heard some persons say, "it is unfortunate that the great Assemblies consummated their union on Friday."

We are well assured that, notwithstanding this superstitious prejudice does not prevail so universally as it did in days gone by, there are many good meaning and excellent people who feel reluctant to undertake a work of great moment or importance on a day which vain tradition has marked as inauspicious in the calendar. It is seldom that ships set out on a long voyage on Friday. Hardened, sturdy and daring tars who will spring to the top-gallant and stand on the yard arm amidst the surging of a tempest tossed ocean, and the fearful rocking of the frail bark, have a "holy horror" of setting out on a voyage on that day.

It is seldom that a lady or a gentleman walks to the hymenial altar on Friday. Many would look upon it as an omen that foreboded much ill if the banns were celebrated on what is sometimes called "hang-man's day."

Few of our readers, we think, indulge in any such feeling. There is no reason why any should. The facts will not warrant the assumption that Friday is a day of ill omen.

It was on Friday that Christopher Columbus set sail on his great voyage of discovery; on Friday he first discovered land, and it was on the same day of the week that he sailed on his return voyage to Spain, where he arrived in safety, also on Friday.

Other important events in the history of the United States transpired on Friday. It was on Friday November 10th, 1620, that the Mayflower freighted with her precious cargo of Puritans reached the harbor of Provincetown. On the same day these noble pioneers of Christian civilization signed, in the presence of God and of one another, the first constitution that was framed within the limits of the United States. "This," says Bancroft, "was the birth of constitutional liberty. In the cabin of the Mayflower humanity recovered its rights and instituted government on the basis of equal rights for the general good. As the Pilgrims landed, their institutions were already perfected. Democratic liberty and independent Christian worship at once existed in America."

It was on Friday that Henry VII., of England, gave John Cabot his commission to proceed on a voyage of discovery to the North American continent.

Saint Augustine, in Florida, the oldest town in the United States, was founded by Melendez on Friday, September 7th, 1565.

George Washington was born on Friday. Bunker Hill was seized, Saratoga and Yorktown were surrendered on Friday. On the same day of the week, the treachery of Arnold was discovered.

It was on Friday that John Adams moved, and Richard Henry Lee seconded, a resolution in Congress that the United Colonies were, and of right ought to be, free and independent.

It may be looked upon by some as a remarkable coincidence that on the two hundred and forty ninth anniversary of the signing of the Cape Cod Constitution, the General Assemblies of the Presbyterian Church should sign the "august compact" of perpetual Union.

We may add that it was on Friday the Pilgrims landed finally on Plymouth Rock.

Who will say then that Friday is an unlucky day in American history? We have the strongest faith that the marriage of the two Assemblies yesterday will be productive of the most blessed results; that more abundant fruits even than those produced by the landing of the pilgrims will flow from their cordial and fraternal union.

IT is due to the opposition press, in Pennsylvania, to acknowledge the manly frankness with which its editors are dealing with each other, of late. For example, the Genius of Liberty, a Democratic journal in Fayette county, repays certain personal compliments, from its political brother of the Harrisburg Patriot, with the first rate notice which we copy below. Its closing menace is significant. The editor of the Genius owes it to the public to keep back nothing. Let him make a clean breast in this business. He says:

> The name of the editor of this paper is at its head, and he owns and runs it. The article that made Wallace and his puppet Myers wince, was written by him, and he alone is responsible for it. He knows that the assertions therein made are true, and he dares Wallace or Myers to attempt their denial. A word now to Mr. Myers. He desires to be considered the very pink of political perfection. There is none so ready as he to denounce pure and upright men as being in "the ring," to swindle the State and embezzle the peoples' money. Yet he allows his paper to be used to puff fellows who havn't a particle of moral honesty in their composition, and whose reputations are notorious as gamblers, blacklegs and whore mongers. He aspires to be the Hercules who shall cleanse the Augean stables at Harrisburg, yet he quietly and complacently pockets his share of the profits arising from the printing of the Legislative Record.
> There are several other important facts connected with Legislative corruption and party manoeuvres, which the editor of this paper is cognizant of, and can furnish on demand.

A WASHINGTON LETTER thus deals with Chief Justice Chase, and the Yerger question:

> To return to the Chief Justice. The rock upon which his prospects are likely to go to pieces is this Yerger case. It is drifting into a general consideration of the reconstruction acts. The country is sick of agitation of this sort, and hoped to be near the end of it. This is especially the case at the south, where the cotton crop, now on its way to market, has been unusually abundant, and commanding a high price, the poor people are getting a taste now of the peace and prosperity so long strangers to their country.
>
> To have this all torn up again, and the country plunged into distressing confusion, merely to save the neck of the most infamous beast that God, from some mysterious cause, put in human shape, is really distressing.
> It is a little curious that the Democratic party, that now stands at the back of the Court, urging on such adjudication, was the first to question such power, and, under Jefferson, denounced the tribunal as dangerous to our liberties. But, then, a Democratic platform is only a spring board to turn somersaults from.

IT is intimated that the Erie clique have "twisted" Mr. McHenry, the agent of the English bond-holders of the A. & G. W. Railway, and that another agent will be employed to conduct the legal controversies with the Erie. It is stated by these parties that "Erie agreed on leasing their road to pay them something like $18,000,000 annually, in quarterly payments; that not one of these payments has thus far been met, and that there is now due them between $13,000,000 and $14,000,000. These European bondholders will further charge that Mr. JAY GOULD caused himself to be appointed receiver of the Atlantic and Great Western a few days before the first payment became due." The reports from Akron look very much as if a triple game of intrigue was in progress, by which, as usual in such cases, the bond holders will come out the sufferers.

THE Philadelphia North American, in an article upon the early construction of the canal from Beaver to Erie, and in reference to the current proposition to enlarge it to a ship-canal capacity, very pertinently remarks:

> The State did the work at a time when no private corporation had the courage or the means requisite. But there is no lack of either now, and with such a splendid prospect as this grand canal enlargement opens, there ought to be no sort of difficulty in raising the amount of money required in a few days here in Philadelphia. All that is needed is that men of energy, enterprise and capital should be placed at the head of the undertaking, to which Pittsburgh must attend.

THE Tioga Agitator says:

> The Pittsburgh GAZETTE regrets that we were not more specific in our strictures upon the foreman of a Grand Jury in a central county, who received the statement of defendant, and upon that ignored a bill against him for shooting a servant. The name of the county is "Clinton." Our object was to point out the dangers which seem to be gathering from every quarter, and which threaten to add the gag to the traditional hoodwink of Justice.

THE Franklin Repository says:

> The Commercial sets out the argument for taking the Treasurer from the Eastern side of the State so clearly that one would almost suppose it in favor of the defeat of Mr. Mackey. As there has been nothing said publicly looking to such an effort we presume that Mr. Mackey will be re-elected without much trouble.

* * *

SEVERAL weeks ago a colony of religious women known as the "Little Sisters of the Poor," arrived in Louisville from France, the special mission of the order to which they belong being to care for the aged poor. But one of them, Sister Sidonie de St. Anne, twenty seven years of age, was acquainted with the English tongue, and this circumstance threw upon her an amount of labor, in getting their new establishment in working order, too great for her physical strength, and the overwork, with attendant anxiety, and inclement weather, so different to that to which she had been accustomed, did baneful work upon the naturally delicate frame of the good young sister. Two weeks since she was so prostrated in health as to be unable to make her daily round of visits through the city in search of food for the aged pensioners of the house which she and her companions had established, day by day grew worse, and on Friday last closed her eyes to earth and opened them to heaven.

RECENTLY a pale-faced, sorrow stricken woman, while in a dry-goods store at Kansas city, Mo., was observed by a salesman concealing a bundle of laces under her shawl. Very quietly, and without attracting the attention of a single eye in the store, the salesman said to her, "I am not able to pay for the lace under your shawl, or you might keep it and welcome. Please put it back, while I walk to the other end of the counter." Large tears came into the woman's haggard eyes, her whole face expressed gratitude, and without a word put the lace back and walked out of the store.

RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

The Christian Freeman, of Chicago, a Free Will Baptist paper, has assumed the quarto form. It is divided into two parts—one secular, the other religious; or, in its own words, "one pious, the other virtuous and both good." The Independent (Mr. Tilton's paper) finds fault with the arrangement, because it does not illustrate the highest type of Christianity, which, it says, is not a commodity, separate and apart from our daily life, but the very element in which we should "live, move and have our being," and which should pervade every part of a newspaper.

An old colored African Methodist preacher, living in Lancaster, Ohio, now in his eighty-eighth year, has been a preacher sixty nine years. It is stated that he had six months schooling when he was fifty-seven years old. This is all the educational advantages he has ever enjoyed.

Some of the leading Eastern Congregational bodies have endorsed the action of the American Missionary Association, relative to the evangelization of Chinese immigrants, whenever they are in lack of religious instruction.

It is claimed that twenty of the twenty-eight Episcopal parishes, in the diocese of Maine, are sustained by offertory alone.

Boston Music Hall, it is stated, will be occupied for evangelical services on Sunday evenings this winter. The congregation will be assisted by a choir of five hundred singers and performers.

Sunday evening last the annual meeting of the Young People's Society of Liberty Street M. E. church, of this city, took place. Reports on various subjects were presented, among which, the conducting of prayer and social meetings. The organization has done much towards encouraging the social and devotional element among the young people of the congregation, and promoting the interests of the Sunday school of the church. Major Wm. Frew, of the United Presbyterian Church, a gentleman of liberal views and catholic spirit, delivered an address of much interest. The pastor, Rev. W. H. Locke, made a few pertinent remarks.

The venerable Rev. George Brown, of the Methodist (Protestant) Church, was seriously injured from jumping from the cars while in motion, at Urbana, Ohio.

The Lutheran Church, at Koshonong, Wisconsin, celebrated its twenty fifth anniversary on the first of November, and signalized the event by the ordination of eleven young men to the work of the ministry.

At the recent session, one hundred and sixty-second, of the Philadelphia Baptist Association, they discussed at considerable length the question of non-communion with Christians of other denominations. The action arrived at in three long and carefully worded resolutions was, that the burial of a believer with Christ in baptism naturally and scripturally precedes participation at the table of the Lord, and further, that the believer must be immersed, and immersion received at the hands of a Baptist administrator.

There are now two hundred and seventy young men in the South preparing for the ministry, under the auspices of the Presbyterian Church.

President Blanchard, in a communication to the Cynosure, writes that only seven students, out of seventy, in Tuft's College, Massachusetts, (Universalist,) profess to be Christians, and that they have not had a prayer meeting there for years.

THE BULL RING AND THE CORNER IN OIL.

PITTSBURGH, November 12, '69.

MESSRS. EDITORS: In common with the large majority of the oil trade, I congratulate you that your paper could not be secured as the organ of the enraged Bulls, or as our friend "S. S." denominates them, the "disreputable schemers." The leary leading article in the editorial columns of a morning cotemporary, written by one of the Head Centres of the Bull ring, only proves to what extent the pages of some newspapers can be prostituted to nefarious purposes, and that that independence which should govern and control them in all their actions, is a phantom, a myth and a lie.

A further illustration of the same mournful fact is found on the pages of another morning journal, which printed, only a few days ago, a manly editorial philippic against the present attempt to corner the oil trade, stigmatizing its organizers in language of bitterest scorn, and calling into question the genuineness of their religious professions, and the purity of their prayers at GOD's altars; and after taking this proud and commendable position before the community, with scarce time enough elapsing for us to fully comprehend and praise their honorable effort, another editorial appears, giving the lie direct to the former one lauding these same "ring men" to the skies for their praiseworthy efforts (?) to elevate the price of oil; that the wicked Bears might be punished for their efforts to keep the poor man's light at a price within the reach of the poorest in the land. Out upon such contemptible hypocrisy! Either the Bull Ring is a grand piece of rascality or, it is not. The men engaged in it are either bent upon artificially, elevating the price of oil, or they are not. All this vast amount of money has been gathered together for some purpose outside of legitimate trade, or it has not. The stated meetings of the prominent Bulls, mean business, or do not; business of a nature, too, that they dare not make known; but with bated breath, and hurried whispers, it is silently attended to, in secret conclave, and wist, away, all hie to their virtuous dens, to say with frantic Macbeth "Thou canst not say, I did it; never shake thy gory locks at me."

Messrs. Editors, the positions some of these men fill in their churches and Sabbath Schools, is much more becoming to their moral well being, as well as to their reputations and consciences, than the arena of the "bull ring," and I am led to pity them and deplore the infernal machinations of disreputable and pernicious tricksters, which must have been used to bring them in.

Now sirs, in brief, what are these men attempting? What is it they expect to do, with all their immense hoard of money and by their midnight congregations, where, we are told, not even the dim reflections of a two-penny tallow dip are permitted to reveal the dark designs of the cabal? What damnable plot is it the intention of the masked, nocturnal visitants to give birth to, that must be hidden from the light of day? What the desperate design, in the accomplishment of which our newspaper editorial columns, sacred in all times past to truth, honor and business integrity, must be bought and paid for, to lend the nasty, nameless thing a decent covering, which otherwise is found impossible to obtain?

Am I too bitter? Am I putting the thing too strong? Is there any danger of any but the guilty wincing? Will these lines ruffle the tranquil temper of the virtuous? Will they call out the color to the cheek of the innocent? Will they not rather, if any effect be produced by their perusal, cause the already blanched cheek of the deep dyed villains in this hell born conspiracy, to whiten still and to shrink from the gaze of honest men for all time to come.

"Let the galled jade wince, our withers are unwrung."

But why quietly pass these things over? Why not rather call them by their right names?

Is this a conspiracy of moneyed men, or is it not?

The intention, Messrs. Editors, of these "ring men" is to buy up all of the production and stock of crude and refined oil, and hold the same out of the markets of the entire world, until such scarcity is caused, that starvation will cause starvation prices to be paid by those whose necessities demand that they must have oil.

They don't deny this; make no attempt to conceal this part of the programme, and with a front that should shame the purest brass, assert that this is fair in trade, and like the veritable prototype and illustrious exemplar, propitiate their consciences by insisting on the letter of the bond, that is the blood from the turnip or as a matter of fact the oil which they have locked up and hidden away out of sight.

Like the spider in the fable, these very men held out strong inducements all through the summer to cause the well owners to sell their promised production of oil in advance of its being actually pumped from the wells; inducing others too, to sell oil at prices, relatively high, in the belief that natural forces, that is increasing production and the closing of the shipping season, would bring about a decline and enable the sellers to buy the oil for less than they had sold. Now after this, is it honorable for these monied men to take advantage of the condition of the shorts (if any there be), a condition partly induced by themselves and their agents, by buying up the entire production at advanced prices, in the hope of squeezing them? Is it honest? Is it not trickery, rather? Is it doing unto others as ye would that others should do unto you? Some of these sellers, who depended upon the steady flow of their wells, possibly find those wells exhausted. Surely it was not immoral for them to sell ahead. Sell what they had a reasonable right to suppose they would be able to furnish. And is it right for these others to take advantage of this misfortune, and artificially elevate prices, purely and solely to cause the sellers to lose, in order that they may make money?

Suppose an iron master contracts to deliver one hundred tons of bar iron: is it absolutely necessary that he should buy immediately sufficient ores, coal, etc., and contract at once for all the labor that may be required to complete his contract? has he not a full right, and is it not entirely proper for him to study the natural course of trade as to supply, demand, etc., and purchase only as his labor can work up the raw material?

Would it be right for the man he has sold to, to go immediately into the market and hire all the labor and forestall all the iron and coal, in order to prevent him from filling his contract? Would this be what the world would call honorable or honest? Again—parties having sold crude oil to be delivered on a certain railroad, at a given time, would it be right for the persons to whom they had sold, to bribe the employes of that road, to so delay their cars, and otherwise confuse the running of trains as to prevent the sellers from making proper deliveries of oil? and yet, Messrs. Editors, this has been done. All, all of this rascality has been resorted to by honorable men!! "ALL HONORABLE MEN," who now stand with uplifted hands, endeavoring to make the good citizens of this community believe that nothing is wrong; "everything is lovely," quiet and serene. The press, too, is made to appear to say, amen. May the hearts and consciences of these guilty men be touched by truth, and seeing their errors turn and go no further.

OBSERVER.

The Revolt in Mormondom.

The Utah Magazine, for October 30, contains the following card from its dramatic editor:

OFFICE UTAH MAGAZINE,
SALT LAKE CITY, October 27.

President Brigham Young:

MY DEAR SIR—Holding my connection with the Utah Magazine, you can no longer give me your fellowship, nor can I conscientiously ask it. I believe that you would manifest toward me, personally, much tenderness, for which I am grateful. Were I in the States or California, I do not think you would take any exceptions to my writings, for I am simply an author, while you are the leader of a people. As it is, I see no virtue in multiplying words in justification, knowing myself to be heterodox. For years I have tried to shun the issue of this day, for theoretically I have been a believer in republican institutions, and not in a temporal theocracy.

I am, sir, very respectfully, yours,
EDWARD W. TULLIDGE.

Its general editor, Elder Harrison, and publisher, Elder Godbe, also print an account of their trial, announce that they have been excommunicated, and assert their belief in civil and religious liberty. Elder Harrison says:

> We have no intention of suspending the issue of this magazine, but from time to time shall in its columns take up this question and analyze in it every light until our brethren understand the question thoroughly. We should, and will, yield our judgment to that of a child, if it can point out to us an error of thought or spirit, but we will not bow to force. The day has gone by for that, and there dawns upon the hill tops of Utah a bright and radiant star of ecclesiastical, as well as civil, freedom. Let every heart rejoice, God reigns! The day of darkness flies before the era of advancing thought. From out our mountain valleys shall yet be borne a banner emblazoned with a wider creed, a nobler Christianity, a purer faith than earth has ever seen. Men shall yet learn that the true mission of priesthood is to teach and not to control, and in our midst shall stand the same priesthood that we believe in to day, but whose greatest glory shall be that they represent a spirit from which every principle of coercion has been wiped away.

Elder Godbe does not consider that his course involves any repudiation of true Mormonism. He asserts:

> With regard to apostacy, I know myself to be wholly innocent, the truth of which, God will in the early future make fully apparent. I might as consistently be charged with the violation of a trust I never accepted. To apostatize from religion, is to abandon it. This I have not done. It is because of my firm adherence to my religion that I have been thus dealt with. My faith at the outset was accepted on the basis of my understanding of the truth; it rests there now; and there it will continue to rest, while reason holds her sway or immortality endures.

Elder Kelsey, who is also under Brigham's band, disbelieves in Brigham's infallibility. He says:

> If a man's testimony of himself can not be believed, in the name of all that is true, I ask, whose testimony shall be received? I have heard President Young assert, again and again, that he (speaking of himself) was neither a prophet nor the son of a prophet, but simply claimed to have been "profitable to the people"—if not, indeed, a prophet, what, I ask, is the character of his inspirations, that they should be worth everything and mine worth nothing, unless sanctified by his? If, through the laying on of hands, the Holy Ghost was given to me as a comforter, by whose inspiration "the things of the Father and the Son would be made known unto me," did I not, through my faith and that holy ordinance, receive the right to drink of the waters of the river of life? Who shall say to me, after I have drunk of the blessed stream, that the water is bitter, when I know for myself that it is sweet to my soul?

The importance of this anti-Young movement can hardly be overestimated. When once the Prophet's followers begin to think for themselves, they will continue to form opinions for themselves, and will soon arrive at conclusions from which at present they would revolt. Brigham is sixty-eight years of age, and probably has not much more time to live, but he will be fortunate if his despotism outlasts him, unless he has the tact to bow before the coming storm.

STATE ITEMS.

THAT portion of the Chartiers Railway lying between Canonsburg and Ewing's Mill was let on Saturday of last week as follows: First section this side of Canonsburg to Rattigan & Rogers; the next section to Dr. J. W. Alexander; and the next to Major John H. Ewing. Work will be commenced on these sections at once.

THE Erie Gazette says the Erie and Pittsburgh Railroad extension down the face of the Bay has reached Rowle & Co's new furnace. It is built in a substantial manner, about five feet above the water level and will materially protect the bank from washing away. It is considered the most practical step yet taken to develop the resources of the harbor Erie."

ON Tuesday night, 9th Inst., Captain West, of Shamburg, was shot by some unknown person, about three miles west of Tionesta, while riding along the river towards President, in company with Mr. Godkin, his brother-in-law. The Titusville Herald, in noticing the affair, says that Captain West and Mr. Godkin were on their way to President for the purpose of purchasing lumber, and that they were fired upon from the rear, by a person or persons concealed in brush. Captain West fell from his horse at the first shot, two having been fired. Mr. Godkin, escaping both, turned, and was proceeding to the assistance of his companion, who fell a few yards behind him, when the latter told him to run for his life, as the persons in the brush were preparing to fire a third time. It is reported that Mr. Godkin followed this advice, and ran his horse all the way to President, at which place he arrived about nine o'clock. Several of the inhabitants of President, on learning what had occurred, started out in search of Captain West, but he was to be found nowhere, although the search was prosecuted diligently for several hours. Further search was made on Wednesday with no better success. Captain West had in his possession when he was shot about $600. He had been putting up well rigs in the vicinity of Upper Cherry Run for some time, and was interested in one or two wells on the same run.

A GREAT deal of attention is attracted to the case of Dr. Paul Schoeppe, now under sentence of death for the murder of Miss Maria M. Stennecke, at Carlisle, Pa. Schoeppe is a well-educated and intelligent physician of 28, has been in this country but a year, and is a son of a Lutheran minister at Carlisle. He formed the acquaintance of Miss Stennecke while in the discharge of his professional duties. Courtship and engagement of marriage followed the acquaintanceship. Miss Stennecke died under rather suspicious circumstances, and while under treatment of Schoeppe, who had become involved in some matters of money and real estate speculations in the interest of deceased, who was reported to be possessed of $40,000. A post mortem examination and analysis of the contents of the stomach reveals the presence of prussic acid and morphia, but whether it was given as a medicine, or with intent to murder, such medical experts as Professors Aiken, Wormley, Gross and Pancoast, and others, have been unable to decide. The whole affair very much resembles the celebrated Parkman-Webster case which happened years ago. Schoeppe protests his innocence, and defies any medical man to prove the case one of murder. The German societies of Pennsylvania, New York and New Jersey believe his story, and are using all their efforts to save his life.

THE trustees of the Boston Public Library announce their intention to form a special collection of Franklinians, as a memorial to the fame of Benjamin Franklin, to embrace every edition of his works or of any one of them, every book written either wholly or in part about him, every magazine article, portrait, broadside or memento of any kind relating to him. They will gratefully acknowledge any assistance that may be rendered in making the collection complete.

MALARIOUS FOGS.

Countless millions of cubic feet of malarious vapor reek from the moist earth every twenty-four hours during the month of November. This evaporated moisture is the active principle which begets fever and ague, bilious remittents, indigestion, dysentery, bilious cholic, rheumatism, and many other ailments which prevail more generally in the Fall than at other seasons, and some of which, in low, swampy regions and new clearings, take the form of virulent epidemic. The best safeguard against these complaints, as evidenced by the experience of a long series of years, is HOSTETTER'S STOMACH BITTERS, the most pleasant, and at the same time the most efficient of all vegetable tonics. The invigoration of the system is manifestly the best means of defending it against the causes of sickness, whether constitutional or casual. Nature, as every pathologist knows, is the most determined enemy of disease, and the paroxysms of an acute malady are in most instances the consequence of the efforts she makes to conquer the foe. The great objects, therefore, of preventive treatment is to reinforce the system, and it is accomplished thoroughly, rapidly, and safely, by the use of HOSTETTER'S BITTERS. This powerful tonic contains also an aperient and corrective principle. It is no less valuable as a regulator and purifier than as an invigorant, and there is no danger of exciting the brain or over stimulating the circulation by employing it as an antidote.

DR. WHITTIER

CONTINUES TO TREAT ALL private diseases, Syphilis in all its forms, all urinary diseases, and the effects of mercury are completely eradicated; Spermatorrhea or Seminal Weakness and Impotency, resulting from self-abuse or other causes, and which produce some of the following effects, as blotches, bodily weakness, indigestion, consumption, aversion to society, unmanliness, dread of future events, loss of memory, indolence, nocturnal emissions, and finally so prostrating the sexual system as to render marriage unsatisfactory, and therefore imprudent, are permanently cured. Persons afflicted with these or any other delicate, intricate or long standing constitutional complaint should give the Doctor a trial; he never fails.

A particular attention given to all Female complaints, Leucorrhea or Whites, Falling, Inflammation or Ulceration of the Womb, Ovaritis, pruritis, Amenorrhoea, Menorrhagia, Dysmenorrhoea, and Sterility or Barrenness, are treated with the greatest success.

It is self-evident that a physician who confines himself exclusively to the study of a certain class of diseases and treats thousands of cases every year must acquire greater skill in that specialty than one in general practice.

The Doctor publishes a medical pamphlet of fifty pages that gives a full exposition of venereal and private diseases, that can be had free at office or by mail for two stamps, in sealed envelopes. Every sentence contains instruction to the afflicted, and enabling them to determine the precise nature of their complaints.

The establishment, comprising ten ample rooms, is central. When it is not convenient to visit the city, the Doctor's opinion can be obtained by giving a written statement of the case, and medicines can be forwarded by mail or express. In some instances, however, a personal examination is absolutely necessary, while in others daily personal attention is required, and for the accommodation of such patients there are apartments connected with the office that are provided with every requisite that is calculated to promote recovery, including medicated vapor baths. All prescriptions are prepared in the Doctor's own laboratory, under his personal supervision. Medical pamphlets at office free, or by mail for two stamps. No matter who have failed, read what he says. Hours 9 A. M. to 8 P. M. Sundays 12 M. to 2 P. M. Office, No. 9 WYLIE STREET, (near Court House,) Pittsburgh.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, November 12, 1869.

Business in the financial world was as dull to-day as it has been for the past week, in commercial circles. There appears to be no movement in either gold or bonds, the latter sympathizing with the dullness of the former. The quotations during the day for gold were 126¾, and 126½ with scarcely any business more than establishing quotations, but there is certainly a storm preparing during the present lull. Indications for a higher market must be looked for in the amount of goods now held in bonded warehouses, which must be marketed at some price, and which would absorb a large quantity of the floating gold on the market, on the other hand the dullness of business and the generally accepted theory that gold must find a level at a lower point, appears to have equally strong points in favor of a decline, and all that is wanted to start it that direction would be a tight money market for call loans, which would force a large amount of gold, now held for a rise on small margins, on the market. The lateness of the season, however, precludes any movement in that direction, unless engineered by cliques.

Government bonds were even duller to day than for the balance of the week, and declined about one-quarter per cent.

Stocks started up strong this morning without any material advance, but closed dull and weak toward the close of business. The appearance of the stock market is that of a strong downward movement, which will set in just as soon as some of the large holders have sold out.

Money very tight, and business at a stand still.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, November 12, 1869.

There is no improvement to note in the tone or spirit of our markets, and what is worse still, it is not likely that there will be for some time to come. In the absence of anything like a speculative feeling or shipping demand, the volume of business continues light, while in regard to values there are no important changes. The grain trade continues in a languishing condition, which is owing to the want of confidence in prices; farmers, generally, are not disposed to sell, anticipating better prices, while dealers are not disposed to buy, being apprehensive of a still further decline. And what is true of grain is equally applicable to flour. For apples, butter, eggs and country produce generally, there is a very good demand, and that, too, at fair prices.

The season for packing hogs is now at hand, but thus far none of our packers have done anything, nor is it likely that they will until prices decline considerably. The provision trade is not in a very healthy condition, as prices are relatively higher in the west than in the east—higher relatively in Chicago and Cincinnati than in New York.

APPLES—Continue to come in freely, but notwithstanding the market is pretty well glutted, prices as yet are fully sustained; we continue to quote at $2@3,50 per bbl.

BUTTER—Is in good supply and dull, but unchanged; sales of prime to choice roll at 30@35.

BEANS—$2,50@2,75 per bushel.

BUCKWHEAT FLOUR—4¼@4½ cts.

CHESTNUTS—Dull; $4,50@5.

CIDER—Is selling at from $7 to $9 per bbl, according to quality and size of bbl.

CRANBERRIES—Firmer and higher; we now quote at $12@16 per bbl.

CARBON OIL—Sales standard brands to the trade at 31½@32, and market firm. The Pittsburgh Fort Wayne & Chicago RR. is now receipting oil through to Cincinnati at 75 cts per bbl, and to Chicago at $1—that is for full car loads.

CHEESE—Quiet and unchanged, ranging from 18@21, the outside figure for New York Goshen.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, November 12, 1869.

The oil market was exceedingly quiet to-day, not a single sale reported, and while the feeling compared with yesterday was somewhat easier, prices have undergone little or no change. Private telegrams from Philadelphia reported business very quiet there, also, and there, as here, operators, are non-plussed, and disposed to hold off and await further developments.

We publish on our second page, a very interesting and very bearish communication, in which the writer deals some heavy blows to the "bulls," and while we do not pretend to pass on its merits, we ask for it a careful persual.

CRUDE.

Market very quiet—not a single sale reported, and prices nominally unchanged. Spot oil is quoted at 16¾@17, bid and asked; seller November, 16⅝@16¾; seller all year, 16@16½; and buyer 17.

REFINED.

Very quiet and a shade weaker than yesterday while prices, as in the case of crude, are unchanged. November quoted at 35⅜; December, 34½; December to March, 34; and January to March 33½.

It was reported this evening that Antwerp had advanced to 62¼ francs.

PITTSBURGH IRON MARKET.

OFFICE OF PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 12, 1869.

There is a continued steady demand for metal, and the market is strong and prices firm though not quotably higher. A gentleman who has just returned from a tour of observation among the Mahoning and Sheango Valley furnaces reports stocks at the furnaces very much reduced, and that many of them are sold ahead.

In regard to bar iron and nails, there are no new or important characteristics, none least worthy of special notice. The mills are all in full blast, and have as many orders as they can fill, and card rates, so far as we can learn, are strictly adhered to.

RIVER NEWS.

The river remains stationary at this point, with two feet in the channel by the Monongahela marks. Weather cloudy and raw, with indications about equally favorable for rain or snow.

There has been no arrivals since the date of our last report, excepting the New State.

The little Piketon was to have left for some place down the river, left evening.

"Q. A's." predictions in regard to the weather, which appeared in this paper yesterday, are rather discouraging to steamboatmen. He thinks there will be little rain this month, and that we will have a hard winter.

—The Belle, at last accounts, was aground at "Deadman."

—Capt. Hugh Campbell left Cincinnati for this city on Wednesday.

—John Anderson, an old river man, was buried at Cincinnati on Wednesday.

—Red river and New Orleans pilots have recently been getting $750 per month.

—The amount of wharfage received at Little Rock, Arkansas, during October, was $235,50.

—It was reported at Cincinnati, on Wednesday, that Capt. Wash Kerr had purchased the Sallie for $20,000.

—The Bellevernon for New Orleans and the Wauanita for Memphis were to have left Cincinnati on Thursday.

—Mr. Thomas Hunter, mate of the steamer Sallie, was very badly hurt, Tuesday, while sparring over Letart, and is now with his brother in Williamstown, West Virginia.

—The Davage is laid up at Cairo awaiting water. She has two barges loaded with 900 tons iron ore from Carondelet—460 tons for Bailey, Woodburn & Co., Wheeling, and the other for various parties in Pittsburgh, Coleman & Rahm, and Lewis, Oliver & Phillips.

—The Louisville Courier Journal says that "negotiations are pending for the purchase of the steamer P. W. Strader, and the possibilities are that she will soon be in the hands of an experienced boatman and clever gentleman." We always thought that she was in such hands.

—A dispatch from Memphis yesterday says: "The Lorena, for New Orleans, departed last night. She was aground several days in the Ohio. In landing at Mount Pleasant she ran into the wharfboat, breaking her boiler deck, smashing furniture, knocking down stanchions and instantly killing a deck-hand, who shipped at Cincinnati, name unknown. He was brought here and buried. In backing out from the levee here she tore off her larboard guard some distance, killing three horses and injuring one man severely."

—A St. Louis telegram, under date of Wednesday, says: The steamer David Watts, which was stealthily taken possession of yesterday, and sent down the river, was intercepted at Sulphur Springs, and will be brought back here. Several queer stories are afloat regarding the affair. Although freight rates to New Orleans advanced yesterday, several parties were forwarding flour, &c. to-day, at the old rates. Judgment was rendered to-day, in the Circuit Court, in favor of Springer Harbough, against the Alton and St. Louis Packet Company, and others, to the amount of $5,876. The funeral of four more victime of the Stonewall disaster took place here to-day.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

☞ SCHENCK'S PULMONIC SYRUP, SEAWEED TONIC AND MANDRAKE PILLS will cure Consumption, Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, if taken according to directions. They are all three to be taken at the same time. They cleanse the stomach, relax the liver and put it to work; then the appetite becomes good; the food digests and makes good blood; the patient begins to grow in flesh; the diseased matter ripens into the lungs, and the patient outgrows the disease and gets well. This is the only way to cure consumption.

To these three medicines Dr. J. H. Schenck, of Philadelphia, owes his unrivaled success in the treatment of pulmonary Consumption. The Pulmonic Syrup ripens the morbid matter in the lungs, nature throws it off by an easy expectoration, for when the phlegm or matter is ripe a slight cough will throw it off, and the patient has rest and the lungs begin to heal.

To do this, the Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pill, must be freely used to cleanse the stomach and liver, so that the Pulmonic Syrup and the food will make good blood.

Schenck's Mandrake Pills act upon the liver, removing all obstructions, relax the ducts of the gall bladder, the bile starts freely, and the liver is soon relieved; the stools will show what the Pills can do; nothing has ever been invented except calomel (a deadly poison which is very dangerous to use unless with great care,) that will unlock the gall bladder and start the secretions of the liver like Schenck's Mandrake Pills.

Liver complaint is one of the most prominent causes of Consumption.

Schenck's Seaweed Tonic is a gentle stimulant and alterative, and the alkali in the Seaweed, which this preparation is made of, assists the stomach to throw out the gastric juice to dissolve the food with the Pulmonic Syrup, and it is made into good blood without fermentation or souring in the stomach.

The great reason why physicians do not cure Consumption is, they try to do too much; they give medicine to stop the cough, to stop chills, to stop night sweats, hectic fever, and by so doing they derange the whole digestive powers, locking up the secretions, and eventually the patient sinks and dies.

Dr. Schenck, in his treatment, does not try to stop a cough, night sweats, chills or fever. Remove the cause, and they will all stop of their own accord. No one can be cured of Consumption, Liver Complaint, Dyspepsia, Catarrh, Canker, Ulcerated Throat, unless the liver and stomach are made healthy.

If a person has consumption, of course the lungs in some way are diseased, either tubercles, abscesses, bronchial irritation, pleura adhesion, or the lungs are a mass of inflammation and fast decaying. In such cases what must be done? It is not only the lungs that are wasting, but it is the whole body. The stomach and liver have lost their power to make blood out of food. Now the only chance is to take Dr. Schenck's three medicines, which will bring up a tone to the stomach, the patient will begin to want food, it will digest easily and make good blood, then the patient begins to gain in flesh, and as soon as the body begins to grow, the lungs commence to heal up, and the patient gets fleshy and well. This is the only way to cure Consumption.

When there is no lung disease and only Liver Complaint and Dyspepsia, Schenck's Seaweed Tonic and Mandrake Pills are sufficient, without the Pulmonic Syrup. Take the Mandrake Pills freely in all bilious complaints, as they are perfectly harmless.

Dr. Schenck, who has enjoyed uninterrupted health for many years past, and now weighs 225 pounds, was wasted away to a mere skeleton, in the very last stage of Pulmonary Consumption, his physicians having pronounced his case hopeless and abandoned him to his fate. He was cured by the aforesaid medicines, and since his recovery many thousands similarly afflicted have used Dr. Schenck's preparation with remarkable success. Full directions accompany each bottle, making it not absolutely necessary to personally see Dr. Schenck, unless patients wish their lungs examined, and for this purpose he is professionally at his Principal Office, Philadelphia, every Saturday, where all letters for advice must be addressed. He is also professionally at No. 32 Bond street, New York, every other Tuesday, and at No. 35 Hanover street, Boston, every other Wednesday. He gives advice free, but for a thorough examination with his Respirometer the price is $5. Office hours at each city from 9 A. M. to 3 P. M.

Price of the Pulmonic Syrup and Seaweed Tonic each $1,50 per bottle, or $7,50 a half dozen. Mandrake Pills 25 cents a box. For sale by all druggists. my19:151-d&F

PACIFIC RAILWAY GOLD LOAN.

Messrs. DABNEY, MORGAN & CO., 53 Exchange Place, and M. K. JESSUP & CO., 12 Pine Street, N. Y., offer for sale the Bonds of the Kansas Pacific Railway. These Bonds pay seven per cent. in Gold; have thirty years to run; are Free from Government Taxation; are secured by a Land Grant of Three Million Acres of the Finest Lands in Kansas and Colorado. In addition to this special grant the Company also owns Three Millions of Acres in Kansas, which are being rapidly sold to develop the country and improve the road. They are first mortgage upon the extension of the road from Sheridan, Kansas, to Denver, Colorado. The road in operation, 437 miles long, upon which it is also a mortgage, NOW EARNS MORE THAN ENOUGH NET INCOME TO PAY THE INTEREST UPON THE NEW LOAN. There is no better security in the market—this being in some respects better than Government Securities. PRINCIPAL AND INTEREST PAYABLE IN GOLD, Price 96, and accrued interest, in Currency. Pamphlets, Maps and Circulars furnished on applications.

We have a full supply of the above Bonds on hand and for sale, and we take pleasure in recommending them as a very reliable and perfectly safe investment.

For Smoke and Hot Air Flues, dispensing with the use of stoves and fires in or about the Passenger or Baggage Cars, with the attachment to graduate the heat to any temperature that may be desired without the possibility of firing the car or cars to which the Jacket may be attached. Having obtained of the United States Letters Patent for a Safety Jacket, which is warranted to resist the most intense heat that may be applied to it in the position and purpose for which it is intended.

It is a sure protection from accidents by fire, originating from defective flues or where iron pipes are used as conductors for smoke or heat. It is applicable to all piping that may become overheated, and is warranted to give perfect satisfaction where wood or other combustible material may be placed in close proximity thereto. I am now ready to apply my invention to stores, dwellings, factories, ships, steamboats, railroad cars, &c. Wherever pipes as conductors are made dangerous by being overheated and security desired, I will send on application right to manufacture or use the above invention. Route for Sale.—A good route on this paper. Apply to-day at GAZETTE counting room.

Preaching To-morrow.—Rev. John McMaster, D. D., of Princeton, Indiana, will preach in the First Reformed Presbyterian church to-morrow, (being communion) Sabbath evening at half past seven o'clock.

Caned.—Mr. James M. Conway, Captain of the Mechanics' Hose Company of Birmingham, was presented with a handsome gold headed cane by his personal friends last evening. A supper, speeches and toasts followed.

Notice.—The Rev. Kit Williams, the famous Colored Baptist preacher of the Shenandoah Valley, will return from Cleveland to-day, and will preach on Sabbath morning and evening in the Colored Baptist Church on Water street, Allegheny.

Frightful Accident.—At about three o'clock yesterday afternoon James K. Little, boss painter at the Excelsior Coffin Works, Sixth ward, Allegheny, while arranging the belting on a revolving shaft, had his right arm torn off at the shoulder by the shaft, which caught his coat sleeve. He was taken to his home at 44 Robinson street. It is thought he will not recover.

Queensware.—The finest stock of Queensward and Bristolware in the city may be examined at the warerooms of the Keystone Pottery, Messrs. Kier & Co., proprietors, No. 363 Liberty street. There is nothing of that manufacture which cannot be procured from this establishment. The articles are of home manufacture, and therefore are the more worthy of attention. Give the firm a call.

The St. Bridget's Fair.—The voting for the set of furniture offered at the St. Bridget's Fair will close at eight o'clock on Thanksgiving evening; sealed votes, however, will be received until ten o'clock the same evening. Voting on the gold cross and chain will close on Friday evening, the 19th inst., at eight o'clock. Voting on the set of furs will close on Saturday evening, the 20th inst., at the same hour.

Call Accepted.—The Rev. E. Y. Garrette, of Millburg, Mass., has accepted a call to the pastorate of the Plymouth Congregational Church of this city, and will deliver his inaugural sermon at the Academy of Music to-morrow morning. The Reverend gentleman is very highly spoken of as a superior pulpit orator and Christian worker, and comes very cordially recommended to his new field of labor with the Plymouth congregation.

False Pretense.—William Sewell a grocer on Penn street, made information before Alderman Taylor, charging Mrs. Regal, with obtaining goods under false pretense. He alleges that she obtained a quantity of groceries by representing that her husband who was absent would pay for the goods on his return home. She was arrested and taken to the office where the case was compromised, by the accused paying the amount of the bill and costs.

Slight Fire.—Last night about half past six o'clock, a slight fire occurred at a new house in course of erection on Second avenue, near Soho. An alarm was sounded from box 76, corner of Brady and Soho street, but the fire was extinguished before the engine reached the ground. The cause of it is not known.

The alarm struck sixteen at first, owing to some derangement of the apparatus at the Central Office, but afterwards the proper number of the box was given.

Larceny.—We stated yesterday that Mrs. Mary Simonton, had made information charging Mrs. Williams and Mrs. West with larceny, and that a search warrant had been issued. The warrant was executed but the search failed to "turn up" the missing property. It, however, led to information of its whereabouts and, another information was made this morning charging Annie Gordon with the larceny of the articles referred to yesterday, a lot of waring apparel. A warrant was issued, the accused was arrested and the articles found in her possession. She acknowledged the theft, and was committed to jail for trial.

Young Ladies' School.

We are glad to learn that so great has been the success of the school recently established by Rev. Mr. Green, 29 Hand street, that he has engaged, in addition to his present assistants, the services of an accomplished lady scholar and teacher from one of the best and oldest seminaries in New England, who will enter on her duties next week. No pains or expense are spared to render this school pleasant and profitable. Its patrons are among our first citizens. Parents are invited to call and see the rooms, which have been handsomely fitted up for the purpose, and to see the working of the school.

Cantata Society.

We are glad to learn that the sale of secured seats for the first concert of the Cantata Society was excellent yesterday, and that there is a prospect of a full house, for Monday next, at the Academy of Music. No genuine amateur of art would forfeit the occasion of hearing how Gounod, the great composer of Faust, can write sacred music, and his "Messe solennelle" performed by a chorus of sixty voices and a full orchestra, in itself worth much more than the price of admission. But the programme offers, besides a graceful composition of Schumann, a magnificent Cantata by Bruch. Music of that high order performed on so large a scale was never before given in Pittsburgh.

Mortuary Report.

The following is the list of deaths in the city of Pittsburgh for the week commencing October 30, and ending November 6, 1869, as reported by Dr. W. Snively, Physician of Board of Health:

Sheriff's Sales.

We direct the attention of our readers to the advertisement of Sheriff Cluley, announcing a public sale to take place at the Court House, on Monday, December 6th, at 10 A. M., of certain pieces of valuable real estate seized and taken in execution for debt. This will be the last sale under the auspices of Sheriff Cluley, whose term of office will soon expire. In saying that he has made an able, capable and efficient officer, we only reflect the united opinion of all who came in contact with him during his occupancy of the important position from which he is about to retire. We are glad to announce, however, that he will take a position in the office of the Clerk of the Courts, a place which he will fill with honor and credit. In whatsoever line of business life Mr. Cluley may accept, he will be followed by the best wishes of a host of friends and admirers.

The Deaf and Dumb School.

The teachers and pupils of the Public Deaf and Dumb School gave an exhibition Thursday evening at the Fourth Ward School House. The exercises were opened with prayer by Rev. E. G. Squire, after which Rev. J. G. Brown addressed the audience, giving a detailed history of the origin of the school and the success attending the efforts of the teachers.

The programme was then proceeded with, the pupils reading in the mute language given passages. Spelling was done, reading lessons given, and stories told by signs, which, together with a dialogue between Messrs. Drum and Woodside, teachers, were quite interesting.

At the conclusion of the entertainment Rev. J. G. Brown, on behalf of the mutes composing the school, presented to Mr. Joel Kerr a handsome bible as an evidence of their appreciation of his labors in their behalf.

The Allegheny Quartee Club was present, and enlivened the audience with excellent music.

The exhibition was well attended and the audience, without exception, were highly delighted with the entertainment.

A Gift to be Remembered By.

As the holidays approach we begin to look about us for something in the way of presents, and vast sums will be spent for jewelry, fancy goods, china, &c. These are all very well in their way, but at best they are but temporary gratifications, often procured at a sacrifice of means needed for real necessities, and, after the novelty is gone, are the source of many regrets to the impulsive and generous, whose hearts are larger than their purses. But there is one kind of present that will justify any degree of self-denial, and will evince a warmer heart in the giver, and will be more gratefully received and longer appreciated by the recipient, than any other, and, withal, it is especially suited to those to whom generous men usually present their gifts—their mothers, sisters, wives and children. We are glad to know that over eight hundred of our citizens have already secured, and several hundred more have determined to secure, this most appropriate of all gifts to a faithful wife or a dependent child. When we have named it, the thoughtful will say thousands should go and do likewise. It is a policy with the Co-operative Life Insurance Company of Western Pennsylvania. The company comprises some of our most wealthy and responsible citizens, and its system of business is perfectly reliable, and much more economical than the best Eastern company, the payments being very small and very easy. Reader, would your wife appreciate, or your children be benefitted, by such a present? A first payment of ten dollars may secure them one thousand. This has happened recently in the case of Mr. John McLaughlin, of New Brighton. In May he insured in the Co-operative; in September he died of fever. To make sure of your own case, get your policy now.

Wells' Every Man His Own Lawyer and Business Form Book.

Representative House.

The fact that the Merchant Tailoring establishment of W. Hespenheide, No. 50 Sixth street, is one of the leading houses in the city, is attested by the amount of business it does and the class of custom it enjoys. It is the emporium of fashion, and is patronized by the leading men of the city. Mr. H. presents superior advantages to his customers in the matter of selecting goods, as the extensive business he does requires him to keep constantly on hand a large stock of piece goods of the latest styles. He employs none but competent workmen, and all work is warranted to give entire satisfaction. His prices are also an inducement, being very reasonable and uniform. No. 50 Sixth street, is the great emporium of fashion.

Burdett Organ Triumphant!

The Burdett Organ bids fair to outstrip all others in popularity, as it already excels all others in musical superiority. Notice the great number of them constantly receiving, and sold and shipped from Kleber & Bros., the sole agents, 122 Wood street, and the conclusion is inevitable that the Burdett is emphatically the organ of the present and the future. Don't buy before examining the Burdett at Kleber's.

Oysters, &c.—Messrs. Youngson & Co. Smithfield street and Diamond alley make a speciality of the preparation of Oysters in every style, and their saloon is consequently the attraction for a host of lovers of the bivalve, who know how to appreciate a luxury in that line. In addition to others, the firm are engaged in the Confectionary trade and the sweet cakes, confections, or anything of that character may be obtained at the establiscment. Perfect adepts in the business all they sell, is warranted to give satisfaction.

The Only True "Family Favorite."—Sailing under false colors usually proves the truth of the proverb, "Honesty is the best policy," and therefore we nail to our well-known flag, "F. F," to the mast, and sail tranquilly along on such sea of prosperity as the universal verdict in favor of the "Weed Sewing Machine" has vouchsafed us. Give us a call, and we will gladly transfer one of our machines to you, to become your "Family Favorite," and be a lasting benefit to you. JNO. BIGGERT & SON, 116 Market Street.

The Union of the two great Presbyterian bodies which was consummated yesterday in our city, was an important event in the religious world, but not more so to the traveller than the fact that at Liebler's great Trunk Emporium No. 104 Wood street, the finest and most substantial articles in that line can be had, at prices, which unquestionably are the cheapest of the cheap.

Every Lady in our vicinity, in making her purchases of Ladies' Goods for the season, should call at Moorhead's, 81 Market street, before investing her money elsewhere.

Candies! Candies!!—Over 100 kinds, strictly reliable, at prices to compare with any, at 112 Federal street, Allegheny City. GEORGE BEAVEN.

Seward & Bentley's Alisma for the Hair.

This invaluable preparation has given universal satisfaction wherever it has been introduced, and called forth the highest encomiums from all those who have been so fortunate as to avail themselves of its beneficial effects. The manufacturers, by studiously experimenting, have succeeded in combining, with much nicety, all the virtues of the ingredients of most of the various Hair Renovators and Renewers extant, and successfully overcome the difficulty of selecting the innocuous ingredients which will restore gray hair to its original color and lustre, and at the same time performs every indication of a perfect Hair Dressing, which neither injures the texture of the hair, nor colors the linen or skin. A few applications impart a lustrous brilliancy and soft, silky appearance to unsightly brash and wiry hair. Faded or gray hair is restored to its primitive color in a few days, and bright red hair is changed to a beautiful auburn by two or three applications. It supercedes hair dye. As a hair dressing it has no successful rival, by its property of preventing and removing dandruff, and curing the various diseases to which the scalp is liable.

Only Two Hours to do Washing.

The Dexter Washing Machine is a great improvement on the defective and unsatisfactory productions exhibited in all former machines.

We invite the most critical examination of its construction and operation, either at your own house or at the place where sold.

All that we ask is a trial, and if not satisfied you are not compelled to keep it. It does not injure the clothes, it saves them. No slopping. No boiling up clothes. Saves soap and time.

Being aware that washing is the most laborious, and at the same time one of the most necessary duties of housekeeping, and which entirely devolves upon the weaker sex to do, under the old system of wash-boards.

The Reunion.

Notwithstanding the important event in ecclesiastical affairs which has just taken place in this city, by which thousands of strangers were brought among us to sojourn for a few days, we are requested to announce to the patrons of the Continental Saloon that Holtzheimer continues to serve his customers with meals at short notice, prepared in a style and manner to defy competition. The Continental is centrally located on Fifth avenue, one door west of the Postoffice, and Holtzheimer's larder, notwithstanding the heavy run upon it during the past week, is well supplied with all the market and season affords.

It is acknowledged by the people generally, that the first and foremost dentist in Pittsburgh is Dr. George W. Spencer, whose complete and elegant establishment is 254 Penn street. For years back Dr. Spencer has held this position, and the continued extensive patronage bestowed upon him is the best proof of his ability in the profession. The Doctor we know to be a courteous and agreeable gentleman, and we know too that in all work of whatever kind, he may be implicitly relied upon. He is not only a first class man himself, but his numerous assistants are all experienced men, and therefore nothing is turned out of the establishment but the best work. Dr. Spencer has done work for us, and if we had any more to do we know of no dentist whom we would patronize with more confidence. We recommend all our readers wanting the services of a dentist to this model establishment.
